

William C. Wright

NMLS # 69529

Upon graduating from Marist College with a degree in Marketing and Finance, William Wright immediately began working in the mortgage industry. Since that time he has been a leading loan originator concentrating on all aspects of commercial and residential lending. He continues to originate millions of dollar of loans each year.

William offers a free class at the Southampton Library on first time home buying and the do's and don'ts of getting a mortgage. William Wright was just recently featured on CBS money watch to discuss the mortgage market and answer CBS viewer's questions.

In addition to loan originating William has maintained deep ties to the east end community as a board member of several local businesses, charities and town government organizations. He lives in the town of Southampton with his Wife Victoria and Son Brendan.